† This course is offered every other year in even spring years, e.g. Spring 2024, Spring 2026, etc.

†† This course is offered every other year in odd fall years, e.g. Fall 2023, Fall 2025, etc.

*The thesis will include the planning, research, preparation and leadership of a full-length program in early music. This practical work will be supported by a written essay that deals, as appropriate, with historical data sources, authentic performance practices and a stylistic assessment of the repertoire that is performed. If a student does not complete the thesis in two semesters, they will be required to register for MUHL 594Z every semester until the thesis is completed. This course will be listed as 0 units on the transcript but will be billed at the rate of 2 units. In lieu of a comprehensive examination, candidates for the Early Music Performance Emphasis will be required to pass periodic reviews to demonstrate progress.

 Students are required to demonstrate a reading knowledge by passing an examination in one foreign language chosen by the student from among French, German, Italian or Latin. This requirement cannot be fulfilled by having taken undergraduate language courses at USC.

 Entrance exams and their corresponding review courses for this major are as follows:

Aural Skills (MUCO 333-1 unit)	___
Theory/Analysis (MUCO 300-1 unit)	___
Orchestration (MUCO 339-1 unit)	___
Instrumental Conducting I (MUCD 343, 2 units)	___ or Choral Conducting I (MUCD 340, 2 units) ___

If a student does not pass the entrance exams in these areas, they must take the appropriate review courses. As these courses are at the 300 level (e.g., MUCO 333), they are not considered graduate courses and cannot be used to fulfill elective credit toward the M.A. Therefore, they will add units to the total number of units you will need to take to complete your degree. Students who hold a Bachelor of Music or a Bachelor of Arts degree from the Thornton School of Music are exempt from any examinations in fields in which they have taken comparable coursework.
