NON-COURSE REQUIREMENT

Comprehensive Review*	0 units
Total: 30 units

* A final project is required for candidates as a capstone for the Master of Music in Popular Music Teaching and Learning. The project will consist of a scholarly document written on a topic approved by the Music Teaching and Learning department and include elements of supervised applied teaching. Candidates must also submit a comprehensive portfolio of representative work product consistent with their work in classes and in the field. Before registering for MTAL 592, a student must establish a guidance committee composed of three members of the faculty, approved by the department chair, of which at least two are from the home department. The chair of the guidance committee directly supervises the preparation of the project. The final acceptance of the project and portfolio is based upon the unanimous recommendation of all three members of the committee.

 Entrance exams and their corresponding review courses for this major are as follows:

Aural Skills (MUCO 333-1 unit) ___	Instrumental Conducting I (MUCD 343, 2 units) ___
Theory/Analysis (MUCO 300-1 unit) ___	Choral Conducting I (MUCD 340, 2 units) ___
Orchestration (MUCO 339-1 unit) ___

If a student does not pass the entrance exams in these areas, s/he must take the appropriate review courses during the first two semesters of the program. As these courses are at the 300 level (e.g., MUCO 333), they are not considered graduate courses and cannot be used to fulfill elective credit toward the M.M. Therefore, they will add units to the total number of units you will need to take to complete your degree. Students who hold a Bachelor of Music or a Bachelor of Arts degree from the Thornton School of Music are exempt from any examinations in fields in which they have taken comparable coursework.
